FOOD AND ## MEDICINE COMBINED!

My preparation of Beef, Iron and Wine is food and medicine in one bottle.

It is a tonic that increases the appetite and aids digestion. It is a stimulant that goes right into the blood and gives immediate help. It is a readily digested quickly assimilated food.

Have several other kinds besides my own. They are perhaps just as good as mine, but they cost more.

If you would rather pay 85 cents for the other kind than pay 50 cents for mine I will sell it to you. There is no reason why you should pay the extra 35 cents.
